

The Ranch Hand

Annual Memorial Edition
Volume 41, Number 1 ~ Winter 2021-2022

"Under the guidance of the Catholic Church, provide a safe home for all youth who have experienced physical or emotional trauma, where every act is done with love to help them discover the dignity of the human person and learn the skills to manage life's challenges."

Ending the Game

Home On The Range has a well-known reputation across the State of North Dakota for offering cutting-edge, evidenced based therapies and services for traumatized children. One of these groups is Ending the Game (ETG), which specifically targets youth who have been commercially sexually exploited and/or trafficked. The website, endingthegame.com, states: "the purpose of this group is designed to educate and empower survivors of commercial sexual exploitation and trafficking by providing a structure and framework to uncover harmful psychological coercion (a.k.a. "The Game") that victims may have been subjected to during or before their exploitation experience. By revealing a sequence of commonly-used, yet seldom-explained, mind control techniques used by traffickers, sexual abusers, media and other coercive agents, we aim to empower victims to acquire skills and end "The Game.""

While ETG has already been named a promising practice working with Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC) population, HOTR has added to the curriculum an equine psychotherapy group. The youth in ETG group participate in the weekly curriculum outlined by ETG, then go the indoor arena for an equine group, where they experience an activity with the horses that dovetails the classroom session. This addition to the ETG curriculum has been very well received by our youth, and subjectively, all three facilitators find that this is a powerful way to relate the classroom content to real life experiences.

We believe our kids say it best. Here are some quotes from journals our girls wrote while in our equine ETG group:

"The horses at the barn help me cope and I can talk to them without them telling anyone."

"In the barn we are able to get creative and teach our peers team work. We are able to express how we feel with horses."

When asked if they liked going to the horses after ETG group, our girls wrote:

"YES! A thousand times YES! And they taught me that not everything is so bad, that horses are awesome!"

"Yes, I like hanging out with the horses it gives me emotional support."

"Yes, I do and the horses relate a lot about almost all of our topics we do together. I think they really get me into the groove of being in the group and listening."

"Yes of course, because I love interacting with horses and people, and also connecting. They've taught me to be calm in hard situations."

"The horses are gorgeous and they just help me feel comfortable. I guess also the horses have taught me patience and doing those activities have taught me kindness and patience. I learned how to work with a team and learn good communication."

Home On The Range has had numerous conversations with the originator of the ETG curriculum. She is considering featuring Home On The Range's program on their new website.

Businesses and individuals donated 60 baskets and items to the 20th Annual Basket Bash! We raised over $6,000 for Christmas gifts for our boys and girls!

THANK YOU!

A couple of our girls wanted to do a Give Back Project and decided to make wreaths for all the departments on the ranch. They turned out amazing!
